CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

The conference begins on Wednesday, January 16, 2019 at 7:00 AM. The program attracts nurse experts across the continuum of nephrology nursing, with a mission to advance nephrology nursing practice, and positively influence outcomes in response to growing demands of regulatory, safety and quality issues in nephrology. Participants will be engaged while learning current research-based practices in nephrology nursing, and how the practice of nephrology nursing inspires and influences the health of all individuals in the CKD setting.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION & POSTER SESSION

Please submit your abstract by November 5, 2018 at RenalResearch.com. The poster session for all accepted abstracts will be featured in the exhibit hall. The four (4) best abstracts will be chosen for oral presentations to be held on Friday, January 18, 2019.

COURSE EVALUATIONS

Evaluations are critical for the future success of this conference. We please urge you to follow the email prompts to complete within 2 weeks after the conference concludes. Once the evaluations are complete you will receive your certificate.
